

Southern Maryland Young Marines to Hold Recruit Training

The Young Marines is a youth service and education program for youth ages 8-18. The program focuses on instilling the core values of Leadership, Discipline and Teamwork in its members. The Young Marines are committed to setting the example of a healthy, drug-free lifestyle and the program is the cornerstone of the Marine Corps' youth drug demand reduction efforts.

The Southern Maryland Young Marines will start its next Recruit Training class on July 25, 2016, with training sessions being held in Chesapeake Beach, MD and Lexington Park, MD. In preparation for the start of Recruit Training, the unit will host two Open House events for parents to register children for the program. The Open House events will be at the Lord Calvert Bowling Alley located at 2275 Solomons Island Rd. Huntingtown, MD 20639 on May 14th from 9am to 12pm, and Cornerstone Presbyterian Church 23075 Town Creek Dr. Lexington Park, MD 20653 from 9am to 10:30am.

If you are interested in learning more about the Young Marines, please contact unit commander, Rob Willis at somdyoungmarines@gmail.com or 240-577-1489.

