Bruce A. Wahl Water Reclamation Treatment Plant

Seven years after starting the project and after three years of construction, the Enhanced Nutrient Removal (ENR) upgrades to the Chesapeake Beach Wastewater Treatment Plant have been completed. On October 21, 2016, the ribbon was cut with appropriate fanfare and the "Bruce A. Wahl Water Reclamation Treatment Plant" was dedicated. I am extremely proud that the plant has been named for me, as I have always worked diligently to protect the Chesapeake Bay, and there is no more impactful way to do that than to have state-of-the-art waste water treatment.

CHESAPEAKE BEACH SAYS FAREWELL & THANK YOU

Bruce A. Wahl Retires as Mayor of Chesapeake Beach

It's hard to say "Farewell." After being honored to serve the citizens of Chesapeake Beach for twenty-eight years as an elected-official, it was a difficult decision not to seek re-election last November. God has blessed me to be in a position to be of service my entire adult life, and I am very grateful for the opportunities. Now, my public service will be in different ways. And as I age, I am looking forward to less-demanding roles. Being Mayor has been very fulfilling, but also difficult at times. I'm quite proud of the accomplishments made by the Town under my leadership over the past eight years, but I am also excited to see what develops in the future!

I congratulate my successor, Pat "Irish" Mahoney on his victory in the election, and wish nothing but great success for him as he leads our Town forward. Pat has tremendous experience, having served twenty years as a council member, and having served eight years as the Town Council Vice-President. Pat capably and admirably filled in for me for several months when I had a major health issue in 2014. We worked well together then, and he will, I'm sure, do a great job in the future as Mayor! Good luck, Irish!

Similarly, I congratulate returning Council Members Stewart Cumbo and Valerie Beaudin, and newly elected members Derek Favret, Larry Jaworski, Greg Morris and Keith Pardieck. It's interesting to note that all four new members are either current or former Homeowners' Association Presidents. I think this is a good omen, as these gentlemen already have a history of public service to their communities, and they have had to learn how to cooperate and collaborate to get things done. If I can offer any advice at all to the incoming council, I would encourage you to communicate with each other and the Mayor regularly, stay informed about the important issues, and remember that you were elected to serve the public – so stay in touch with your constituents! Collaboration and cooperation will serve you well, not competition and confrontation.

The staff of this Town is simply amazing! As I leave office, I feel that the current staff is simply the best I have ever worked with in all of my twenty-eight years. Their dedication, professionalism, skills and love of this Town are beyond compare. I would name names, but it would be every one of you. Know that I will be eternally grateful for your contributions to the Town during my tenure. THANK YOU!

Finally, I need to acknowledge the love and support of my wife Becky. Throughout my tenure as Mayor, she has been my rock, my solid supporter, no matter what. We've known each other for fifty-one years and been married for twenty-nine years. I thank God every day that she is in my life and that she is my wife. I look forward to being able to spend more time with her in the future. I love you, Becky!

Chesapeake Beach, I love you too! I hope your future is perfect and that, as a Town, you have blue skies, fair winds and following seas!

Bruce A. Wahl, Mayor, 2008-2016
