Mom's Big Year

A mom reinventing herself through her passion for birds

Join Nancy McAllister on her journey through a 'Mom's Big Year' of birding as she traveled to hotspots from coast-to-coast to see as many birds as possible in the US throughout 2016. Nancy used the Big Year to begin her journey of healing after a family tragedy. She has many wonderful heartwarming stories to share from her adventures. Come hear more about how Nancy juggled life, work, and family, and used her birding adventures to heal, renew, and rediscover herself.

*Nancy is a biologist and teacher. She loves combining her careers in field work, research and education. Nancy hosts a popular blog (www.momsbigyear.com) and lives in Ellicott City, Maryland with her husband Paul, their three children and eleven chickens.
